

Le Dîner en Noir™

Partnering Sponsorship Policy

Definition

Sponsorship is a business relationship between two organizations. In this case, it is between Dîner en Noir and traditionally businesses & corporations, but it could also be extended to government organizations. These businesses, corporations or government organizations look for marketing and community relations opportunities in exchange for money, products or services, and they seek corporate recognition for their involvement.

Purpose of Policy

1. Set out the criteria and decision making process for sponsorships of Dîner en Noir activities.
2. Balance the Dîner en Noir reputation management with revenue generation.

Overall Policy

Dîner en Noir may solicit and accept sponsorships for events, programs and operations within the terms outlined below. Sponsorship monies are deemed a desirable form of revenue diversification which allows Dîner en Noir to keep membership dues low and event fees affordable while contributing to the operational funds of the organization & supporting the local arts and business communities. Dîner en Noir may consider in kind, indirect and monetary sponsorships. Note, Dîner en Noir will not be issuing charitable tax receipts in return for sponsorship funding.

Decision Process

Dîner en Noir Corporate is ultimately accountable for the sponsorship policy and for approval of individual sponsorship agreements. However, successful sponsorships are based on relationships. Local event organizers and committees shall be free to solicit, accept and negotiate most sponsorships without delay of taking decisions to Dîner en Noir Corporate. The decision process is therefore divided into two types:

1. Sponsorships limited to events or single program actions (E.G., Annual Dîner en Noir event) totalling no more than $30,000 and in full compliance with the sponsorship policy.

The decision is delegated to the local licensed organizing host or appropriate committee chair(s).

2. Sponsorships of any size involving exclusivity, a length of two events or more, an amount exceeding $30,000 or any doubt about compliance with sponsorship policy.

Dîner en Noir Corporate, using its normal decision process, makes the decision, and its decision is final. Sponsorships shall be recommended to the Dîner en Noir Corporate by staff or local organizing host/committee chair(s). All sponsorships shall be reported to the Dîner en Noir Corporate, within regular event reporting or status reports, so that a database can be maintained and potential major sponsors identified.

Who to Accept

Only reputable individuals and organizations whose image, product or services do not conflict with Dîner en Noir's mission or values may be considered as sponsors. There is no obligation to accept any sponsorship offer. Dîner en Noir's long term reputation and credibility always takes precedent over short- term monetary needs.

While each potential sponsorship agreement will be considered on its merits, and judgement and discretion will characterize the decision making, the following questions will always be raised:

- Would this association be a good fit with Dîner en Noir's image?
- Does the sponsorship conflict with our values?
- Does the sponsorship suit our overall strategy?
- Will this sponsorship help us realize our objectives?

Ethical filters that help determine a desirable sponsor are:

- Community Standing & Involvement.
- Previous support of the local or national arts & small business communities
- Environment and health.
- Disclosure and accountability.

Research on behalf of Dîner en Noir, particularly in choosing which organizations to proactively approach, will concentrate on those areas unless the theme of the event or program makes another focus more relevant.

For much small sponsorship, usually linked to an event, it is not unreasonable to research the organization sufficiently to know its values or its record on many possible ethical filters. However, the organization contact shall be asked about likely issues and their response documented.

A company may be rejected if the corporate representative refuses to answer a potentially relevant question. Not every question need be asked of every potential sponsor, and in many cases none of these questions will be relevant.

The Dîner en Noir representative shall preface any questions by noting the Dîner en Noir, as a national events production organization, must withstand extra scrutiny. The questions are asked to fulfill due diligence requirements. If an organization representative is later found to have misled Dîner en Noir, Dîner en Noir has the right to cancel the agreement.

Sponsorship shall be reviewed with more rigor and detail where the risks to Dîner en Noir's credibility and integrity are higher, ie national or multi-event agreements. In such circumstances, information obtained solely from the potential sponsor is rarely sufficient. It may be sufficient in combination with public information (e.g. Better Business Bureau standings published under the Council of Better Business Bureaus or inclusion in Ethical Funds portfolios). If no such public information is readily available, research is required. Any sponsorship question may be raised with Dîner en Noir Corporate between meetings if staff or committee chair wishes to draw on a wider knowledge and perspective available from Dîner en Noir Corporate.

It is unfair to the Dîner en Noir's volunteers and agents, and to the potential sponsor, to put time into an arrangement which has no hope of acceptance. Dîner en Noir will not continue sponsorship discussions with any organization once that organization, its parent or subsidiaries is found to be engaged in:

- Criminal or illegal activity
- Sourcing from slave or child labor
- Environment degradation of the planet

To ensure that Dîner en Noir is perceived as an organization welcoming to everyone involved in arts and business community, Dîner en Noir shall not enter into sponsorship discussions with organizations that have a primary focus on:

- Party politics
- Religious activities (faith based Corporate Social Responsibility coalitions would be eligible as sponsors)

The following activities require additional rigor in screening the organization for a Dîner en Noir sponsorship:

- Sourcing of products or labor in repressive regimes.
- Resource extraction
- Degrading sex or violence
- Production of land mines, chemical weapons, arms or munitions or promotion of use of weapons.

The company would be eligible, for example, if it were active in improving conditions in a repressive regime, or received only a small percentage of its revenue from one of the above activities.

Significant media coverage (preferably from several sources) noting ethically problematic activities is sufficient rejection if the Dîner en Noir representative deems it credible enough to the arts and small business community that Dîner en Noir's image will be hurt by association.

Confidentiality

It could damage to Dîner en Noir's reputation if discussions with an inappropriate sponsor became public knowledge. Also, Dîner en Noir shall not be the source of any public information about rejected sponsorships. To reduce liability and maintain relationships in case details change in the future, rejections shall be kept confidential. The information will normally be known only to the staff or the committee chair, and Dîner en Noir Corporate, if it was involved.

Scope of Sponsorships

Timing: Program and operational sponsorships may be negotiated for any specified time period. Relationships that are anticipated to exceed a single event require a review after the initial term but least every year. Event sponsorship may be for one event or a related series of events.

Number and Size: For Salon (smaller) events and specific aspects of Dîner en Noir's operations, having only one or two high-level sponsors makes it easier for each sponsor to receive sufficient recognition. Several sponsors shall be preferred for Standard (larger/annual) events and programs, unless the sponsorship is sufficiently significant to enter into discussing of branding a portion of event or program with a corporate or product name. The total amount eligible for sponsorship shall be based on the full cost of the item including all related overhead. All event and program cash sponsorships shall include a charge of 10 – 15% to be applied to operational costs.

Benefits and recognition

High-level event, operational and program sponsors shall be recognized in ongoing ways such as the web site, member communications, marketing & advertising and literature related to the sponsored event. Recognition is limited to display of the sponsor's name and logo, a few words of description and a link to the sponsor's website. Additional recognition such as the use of product names, banners, advertisements or special promotions shall involve the provision of additional resources to Dîner en Noir. Dîner en Noir staff and/or Committee chairs shall develop a schedule of fees for such promotion. This schedule of fees shall require Dîner en Noir Corporate approval in instances where the fee from any one sponsor exceeds $30,000. Complete recognition levels for Partnering Sponsors can be found in Appendix I

Lower-level event sponsors shall be recognized only in connection with the event, which may include any advance publicity, programs, Dîner en Noir web or e-bulletin announcements, event signage, oral thanks etc. Events accepting more than one sponsor may assign recognition levels depending on amount or amount range. This may be done by linking sponsors directly to a portion of the event, e.g. reception or by identifying levels e.g. platinum, gold, silver, and bronze. The Dîner en Noir Corporate office shall collect information on such recognition levels from organizers to avoid unintentional inconsistencies. Dîner en Noir may establish common names and ranges for sponsorship levels with generic benefits applicable to each level of an organizational sponsorship.

In no circumstance will Dîner en Noir become involved in a situation that requires it to endorse a sponsor's product. Dîner en Noir shall recognize that members and the general public will assume Dîner en Noir has researched its sponsors and decided that the company and its products represent the highest ethical standard and fosters an ongoing support of the local arts and business communities. A prominent disclaimer may therefore accompany each sponsorship recognition, noting that Dîner en Noir thanks its sponsors for their support but does not endorse their products or services.

Sponsors wishing to promote their support of the Dîner en Noir may use the name, logo, URL (live linked where possible), in accordance with contract terms but requires advance approval of the specific content and wording from the Dîner en Noir. In the absence of a signed contract, sponsors may not use the Dîner en Noir name or logo in any public material. Any unauthorized use of the Dîner en Noir name, logo, marks, etc., shall make the existing sponsorship agreement void, and sponsor shall forfeit and right to an refund and well as disqualifies the sponsor organization from further Dîner en Noir sponsorship until, and unless, Dîner en Noir Corporate determines that eligibility has been restored.

Dîner en Noir will not grant exclusivity extending beyond a single event without a full examination of the benefits to Dîner en Noir. Large companies requesting exclusivity beyond a single event must:

- Funding a minimum of 75% of the total related costs and share to be applied to operational costs.
- Specify the corporate division, if applicable of any exclusivity request.

Promotion

Dîner en Noir shall develop a promotional piece outlining why Dîner en Noir is a desirable recipient of sponsorship. The promotion shall be aimed at organizations wishing to enhance their reputation by supporting a respected national events production organization with a mission of promoting & supporting the local arts and business communities and/or wishing to reach individuals with special influence within those communities in cities across the U.S. This piece shall be added to the web site and fundraising tool kit and kept current. Event organizers and committee chairs may supplement the general piece with the benefits of their program or event e.g. audience size and demographics

Terms

All sponsorship agreements over $30,000, and in excess of one event or that include naming rights shall be confirmed in writing by the President of Dîner en Noir Corporate and co-signed by the sponsor's representative. For sponsorships that do not meet this threshold the agreement will be signed by senior Dîner en Noir representative or the committee chair.

Staff or the committee chair shall draft an agreement consistent with the size and the scope of the sponsorship. In most cases a short letter with sign-back will be sufficient. The agreement shall be directly with the sponsoring company, not any agent or broker.

Even such short agreements shall include a clarification of the planned use of the support, minimum recognition the sponsor shall receive, the need to have any use of each other's logos approved in advance, and also may include the statement that Dîner en Noir does not endorse sponsor's products or services. A sample agreement is attached for a short-term sponsorship (Appendix II). Dîner en Noir Corporate shall develop a template contract for long-term sponsorships.

Sponsorships exceeding a single event or action shall be confirmed by contract. In addition to the items stated above, the contract shall clarify relevant aspects of:

- When the sponsor will provide payment, or make promised in kind goods or services available.
- Who the main contact(s) will be for each party.
- Any interim or final reporting agreed upon, how the agreement shall be monitored and when reviewed.
- When the agreement terminates, and how early termination is effected.
- Any minimum or maximum amount, and how determined, and any exclusivity commitment.
- How any failure to meet commitments will be handled. (e.g. what happens if the event is cancelled)

Update Process

Given changes in societal views and values as well as monetary values, Dîner en Noir Corporate shall review its sponsorship policy at a minimum of every 24 months.

Appendix I: Operational Sponsorship Levels

This paper refers to partner or operational sponsorships. These financial contributions, which are determined by the local organizer, are made to enable the corporations to show support to the Dîner en Noir and to align with an organization that shares similar policies and practices. These funds, less the real cost of the benefits back to the corporation, are considered discretionary money and can be used by the Dîner en Noir for any purpose within approved budgets and policies. This policy does not cover event/program sponsorships, grants or contribution agreements; funds that are made available to the Dîner en Noir for specific purposes as specified by the funder.
